Subject: Bradford Island - Review of Products

Hi Helen,

Are you okay with reviewing our products concurrently with others (DEQ/tribes, etc.) as we have been doing, or should we send everything to you first for comment before sending out to others for technical review. If you need to review first, how much time do you need? We prefer to keep reviews the way they are so our review cycle isn't lengthened, but let us know. It might be good to have federal alignment before sending to others. Call if you'd like to discuss.

Thanks,

Chris
